About Kerala

Kerala — God's Own Country — is more than just a destination; it's an immersive experience that stirs the soul and awakens the senses.

Imagine a land where emerald-green hills meet the sky, where spice-scented forests whisper ancient secrets, and where time slows down as serene backwaters reflect the rhythm of life.

This handpicked journey is a celebration of everything Kerala has to offer — from the cultural charm of Fort Kochi, where colonial streets echo with stories of traders and artists, to the mist-laden slopes of Munnar, blanketed with endless tea gardens and hidden waterfalls. As the road unfolds, you'll step into the wild heart of Thekkady, home to vibrant forests, spice plantations, and the thrilling presence of elephants and exotic birds.

And then comes Alleppey, where houseboats glide through labyrinthine canals, coconut palms dance in the breeze, and village life plays out like poetry on water. Finally, the journey winds up in Wayanad, a mystical land of ancient caves, lush rainforests, and tribal traditions that add depth to Kerala's already rich tapestry.

Whether you're a seeker of adventure, a lover of stories, or someone looking to unwind in nature's lap, this curated Kerala experience offers it all — woven together with heartfelt hospitality, unforgettable cuisine, and the spiritual calm that Kerala is so loved for.

Trip Itinerary

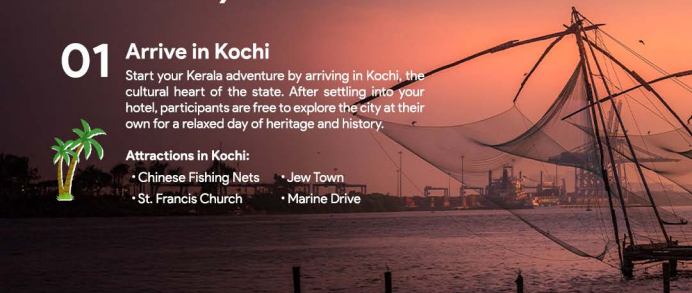

01 Arrive in Kochi

Start your Kerala adventure by arriving in Kochi, the cultural heart of the state. After settling into your hotel, participants are free to explore the city at their own for a relaxed day of heritage and history.

Attractions in Kochi:

- Chinese Fishing Nets
- Jew Town
- St. Francis Church
- Marine Drive

Travel from Kochi to Munnar 02

The road journey starts early in the morning toward Munnar, a 4.5-hour scenic drive that winds through lush valleys, tea plantations, and misty hills.

As the sun begins to dip, camp arrives in Munnar and settles into the rhythm of the hills. The evening is spent wandering through tea gardens, breathing in the crisp mountain air and sipping freshly brewed local tea—a serene end to the day's journey.

Enroute Attractions:

- Cheeyappara Waterfalls
- Valara Waterfalls

03 Munnar to Thekkady

The day begins with a visit to Eravikulam National Park, where the highland meadows provide sanctuary to the endangered Nilgiri Tahr. Towering cliffs and open grasslands offer panoramic views across the rolling hills and misty valleys of Munnar.

By afternoon, the road leads toward Thekkady, Kerala's aromatic spice capital. The 3.5-hour drive offers scenic transitions from tea country to forested spice plantations. On reaching Thekkady, the group checks into the hotel, with time to unwind and take in the peaceful atmosphere of this hill retreat.

Experiences of Munnar:

- Tea Museum
- Mattupetty Dam
- Echo Point

Thekkady to Alleppey 04

The morning begins with a visit to a spice plantation, where different plants like cardamom, black pepper, and cinnamon are grown. See how these spices are farmed and learn about their uses.

After lunch, begin the drive to Alleppey (about 4 to 5 hours), known for its peaceful backwaters. On arrival, check in to a houseboat or a resort by the water.

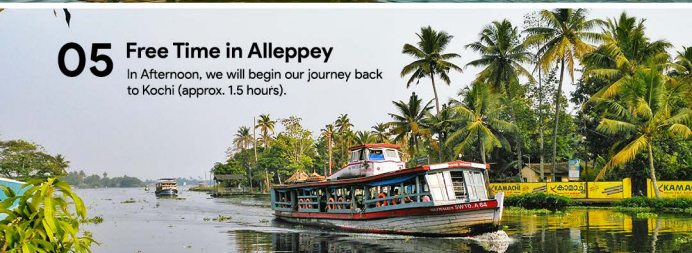

- Kalaripayattu Martial Arts Show • Elephant Interaction

05 Free Time in Alleppey

In Afternoon, we will begin our journey back to Kochi (approx. 1.5 hours).

06 Disperse from Kochi

After breakfast, wrap up your trip and head to Kochi Airport or Railway Station for your onward journey.
